Warehouse/Logistics

The last touch before delivery is made in our warehouse. Here Steve Kallo are in charge of a competent crew who pack, assemble and fix so our products should not be damaged during transport, and for You to find the items and assembles as smoothly as possible in store.

Mikael Carlsson solves logistics and arranges with transport and documents.

Our ambition over the years has been to create as efficient logistics solutions as possible. We hope You appreciate our ambitions!

Order and Order

Our Vision: Ricana - the obvious choice!

Early in our discussion how to reach our vision we came to "Order and Order". And it is true - it is very important to work under good circumstances to get flow in the work.

Our work to create order... Read more
